Some Welcome, Introduction and Thank-you Remarks – John Coyle

Guest Speaker – Kevin Fitzgerald (public affairs, SCGA) – Kevin shared his insights from his experience working for the SCGA.

State of the Club Reports

- Treasurer – Clarke Sharar presented a pie chart that is a representation of the distribution of monies from the membership dues. He also briefly described the rationale behind the year ending bank balance target and how tournaments are funded.
- Membership – Doug Hodson shared how membership has fluctuated over the past few years due to the pandemic. This year, we have rebounded quite nicely with 69 new members. Doug also presented awards to the four hole-in-one winners for the current year (to date).
- Tournament – Bob Barrie gave a report on the tournaments this year and the corresponding numerical statistics. He also reported a general approach to next year's activities that will continue the same approach for “lighter” lunches for the tournaments.

Unfinished Business – Life Members – John Coyle

- Ken Dobson and Orest Kruhlak are recipients of due to their tireless efforts in promoting and organizing events for the men's golf club over an extended period.

Champions Recognition – Bob Shakespeare
